THE FUTURE IS AI: JOIN THE MOVEMENT

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is experiencing an unprecedented surge in popularity and demand due to several key factors. Its ability to process vast amounts of data, automate tasks, and make intelligent decisions has immense potential to revolutionize industries, from healthcare to finance. AI's rapid advancements and tangible applications make it a hotbed of innovation and a catalyst for transformative change in today's technology-driven world.

RECAPPING UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS FROM OUR PREVIOUS EDITIONS

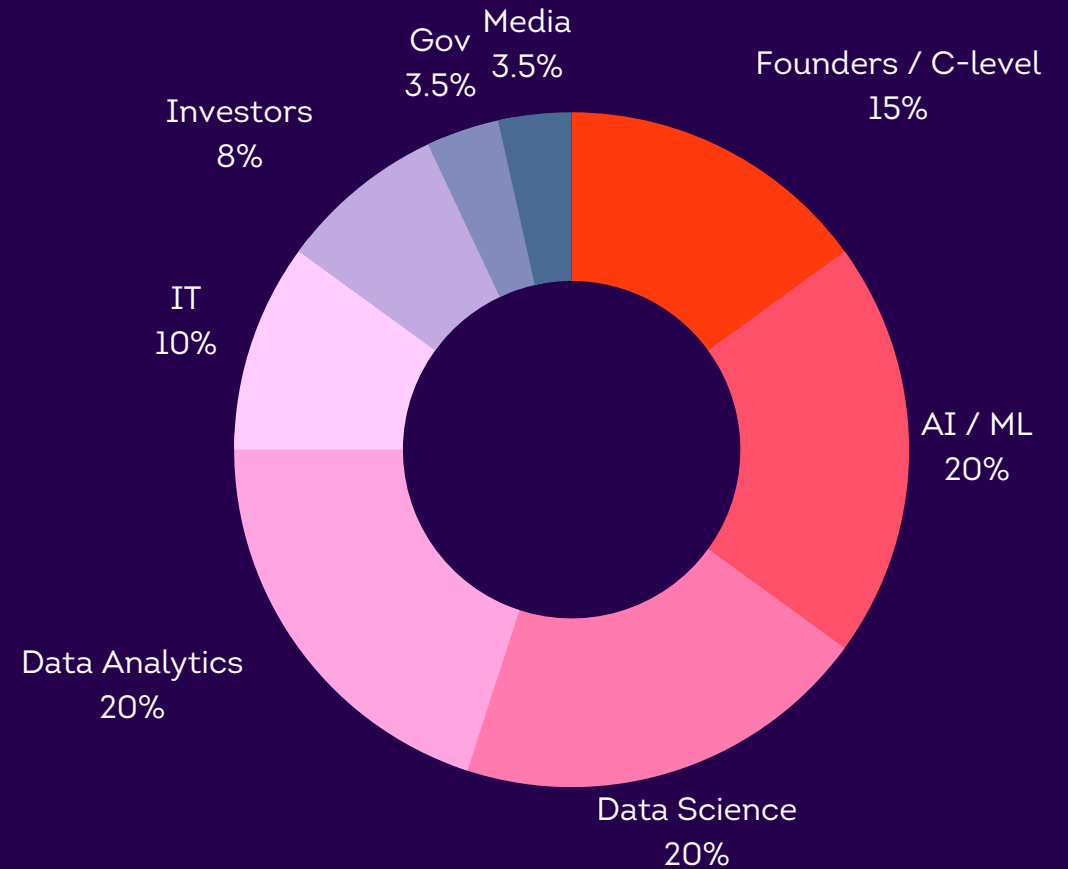

AI WHO ATTENDS: FINANCE AND TECH DECISION MAKERS

Future of AI is attended by tech leaders, decision makers, and junior professionals in AI & data roles. Our attendees come from all types and sizes of organizations, big and small, private and public, from a range of industries, including finance, retail, tech, and more.

On average, 80% of our attendees are based in Israel. Many of them, however, work for global companies serving clients and employing teams all over the world. 20% of our audience is based globally, mostly in Europe. Our events are the place to meet the AI & data community!

ONE-OF-A-KIND CONFERENCE

Our conference is a transformative experience like no other. It brings together trailblazing thought leaders, innovators, and visionaries who challenge the status quo. Attendees can expect groundbreaking insights, unparalleled networking opportunities, and a profound shift in their perspectives.

AI EXHIBITION OPTIONS

We offer multiple options for exhibitors

Our sponsors can choose from various exhibition options. Our sponsorship packages include the booths themselves - we build everything for our sponsors. It can be a basic booth or a custom-made booth. Some sponsors decide to build a coffee stand or meeting lounges as part of their booth.

AI BOOK MEETINGS IN ADVANCE

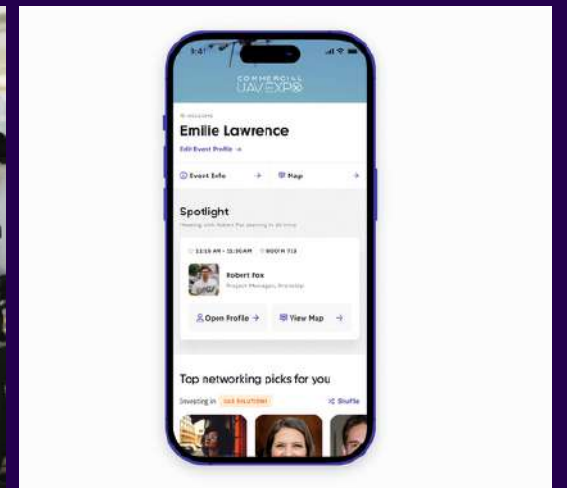

Attendees & sponsors can set up meetings one week before the conference date

Our conference attendees will be able to set up meetings with fellow attendees, in advance, using one of the world's leading meeting & networking platforms.

This advanced platform elevates the whole experience for our attendees as they are able to start booking their meetings at least a week before the conference date.

Our conference sponsors will get additional opportunities to expose their brand and unique offerings to the conference attendees on the meeting platform, on it's web interface and mobile app.

We've helped set up over 220+ meetings in our last annual edition!
